3. Your project

How did you use the High Sheriff Youth Awards money to support your project?
How many young people benefit(ed) from the project? (include age groups)

High Sheriff Youth Awards

How our funding has helped your project?

What impact did/does your project have on young people?
What impact did/does your project have on the community?
If your project application identified working with young people who are at risk – or other specific groups – was this/is this being achieved?

4. Advice and support

Have you contacted your assessor or the HSYA Administrator for advice over the past year, for example on further funding opportunities?
If 'yes', was the advice you received helpful?

5. The process

How did you find out about the High Sheriff Youth Awards scheme?
Did you apply for an award on our website, through your HSYA assessor, or by post?
Is there anything you would change about the application process?
Did you receive HSYA funding at the right time to help your project?
Would you apply for High Sheriff Youth Awards funding in the future?

The HSYA assessor will return to the project, usually after one year, and complete this evaluation form with the original applicant. It is then submitted to the HSYA committee. If this does not happen for any reason, individual projects may be asked to complete the form and return it by post or email:
